

NATION

Plan to suspend Penang ferry service for upgrading works dropped

By Mohamed Basyir

August 29, 2020 @ 2:38pm

The authorities have shelved a decision to suspend Penang ferry services for three months beginning Sept 1, during which upgrading works at the terminal were to take place. - NSTP/DANIAL SAAD

Penang Chief Minister Chow Kon Yeow said that for now, ferry services will continue as normal, and that he was informed of the development during a meeting with Transport Minister Datuk Seri Wee Ka Siong on Thursday. - NSTP/DANIAL SAAD

GEORGE TOWN: The authorities have shelved a decision to suspend Penang ferry services for three months beginning Sept 1, during which upgrading works at the terminal were to take place.

Chief Minister Chow Kon Yeow said that for now, ferry services will continue as normal, and that he was informed of the development during a meeting with Transport Minister Datuk Seri Wee Ka Siong on Thursday.

The upgrading had been planned as part of a project to create a new and improved ferry service for Penang.